Health Sciences Division

The Associate Degree Nursing Program at Roxbury Community College was established in 1987. The goal of the program is to serve the community with quality education for a rewarding career in the nursing profession. The course of study at Roxbury Community College leads to an Associate in Science Degree. Graduates are eligible to take the NCLEX-RN examination to become registered nurses.

The College is committed to diversifying Boston's nursing workforce by providing a well-rounded academic and clinical program. Roxbury Community College has clinical affiliations with some of the top health care facilities in the United States, including Boston Medical Center, Brigham & Women's Hospital, Mount Auburn Hospital, Shriners' Burn Institute, Newton Wellesley Hospital, South Shore Hospital, and many rehabilitation, long term, and community health care sites. Our nursing graduates are employed in all areas of nursing and many continue their formal nursing education in baccalaureate and graduate level institutions.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Trisha Peach, BSN, RN

Trisha graduated from Middlesex Community College with an AS in nursing. She continued with her education and obtained a BSN from Northeastern University; she is pursuing a Masters of Nursing in Education at Roger Williams University.

As a nurse, Trisha worked at MGH as a staff nurse and a nurse in the ICU/PACU. She worked in the Public School system as a school nurse and nurse manager. She was instrumental in implementing the AED program for the public school system. She is on the Burlington Drug Task Force.

Currently she is a nurse at Spaulding Hospital and works with patients with pulmonary complications on ventilators. She also functions in the role of a nurse clinical instructor for associate degree nursing students at Bunker Hill Community College.

THE NURSE'S PLEDGE

In accepting this pin, I solemnly swear to uphold the ideals of the nursing profession.

I will administer quality care to all patients, regardless of race, creed, or sex.

I will safeguard the patient's rights to privacy, and I will offer support during crises to both clients and their families.

I will participate in activities that promote, restore, and maintain physical and emotional health.
